

END OF THE FUHRERS

SPEECH

Thus spoke Lord Justice Lawrence on Day One of the ten-month drama ended at Nuremberg. To answer came Goering (except for Hitler) head of the Nazi State. Now he will die - hanged by the neck like a common criminal. Lest pity be felt for him and his kind - remember this man burned the proud cities of Britain.

SOUND

From the skies came death. And those who died - as here in Coventry - they do not forget.

Of the accused, twelve hang, 3 go to life imprisonment, 3 from 10 to 20 years. Here is Wilhelm Keitel. This man - once a Field Marshal, sent German Armies over Europe and Western Russia. He too will hang. But that will not wash away his crimes nor bring back our dead.

Among these sentenced was Baldur von Schirach. He will serve 20 years in prison, but the evil he implanted in the young men and women of Germany will take more than 20 years to destroy.

Now the defendants know who is to die. But we speak for the millions killed because of them. The burned towns, the widows, the fatherless, and the unspeakable horrors of the murder camps.

This was the work of the Fuhrers. Let us now have done with them - for ever.
