

N.P.'s

Westminster. October 26. Parliament re-assembles. Business, to finish a tough session and to plan the next. Bodmin's Commander Marshall goes into the fight with fellow Tories MacDonald and Challen of Hampstead. Here's Conservative Crowder of Finchley and Liverpool Liberal Mr. Kirby. We believe the opposition will put up a better show than last session. Today Conservatism has a new fighting voice in Tory Chairman Lord Woolton.

'Speech'

New Labour. Salfords' Boyle; and from Sparkbrook, Alderman Shurmer.

Labour's Mr. Parkin from Stroud.

Major Bruce - Portsmouth, North.

Sidney Silverman - Nelson and Colne. And from Leeds North, Socialist go-getter Alice Bacon. Now Hobson of Wembley and atom-expert Raymond Blackburn. And last at the round-up, Mackay's Mr. Hynd and Preston's Shackleton. Government rank and filers and Pathe's reporter picks up a new promotion, War Minister Fred Bollerger - one-time back bencher tackling a big job.

'Speech'

The bell has gone. From now, the battle is on.
