

WINSTON GIVES AWAY A HOUSE

From ex-Premier Winston Spencer Churchill, the gift of a house, Place Sevencaks, Kent; the house, Churchill Court; beneficiaries, the British Legion.

With Legion Chief Sir Frederick Maurice, Mr. Churchill inspects a gathering which (as he said in his speech) represented 50 years of our military history. 1500 legion members welcomed him. Many of them, (our cameraman reports) remarked on the tired lines in the indomitable bull-dog jaw. Home for disabled men, Churchill Court commemorates a lifetime's service to the nation.
