

46/90

BEVIN IN NEW YORK

To a New York just out of an election landslide for Conservatism comes British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin.

SPEECH

Next, stop the Big-four Meeting.

And here is the meeting. At New York's luxury Waldorf Astoria hotel begins the Conference which will make or break world hopes for peace. Chief protagonists are plain-spoken, cards-on-the-table Bevin and unshakable, inscrutable Foreign Minister Molotov.

Scientists have always wondered what would happen when the immovable object met the irresistible force. At this Conference, we may learn the answer.