

46/92

REPORT FROM INDIA

From Bombay, India, first pictures of the Moslems at prayer on the holy day they call the Bakri-Id. On this occasion, expected trouble between Hindus and Moslems did not materialise.

Meanwhile, at Viceregal Lodge, New Delhi, Cabinet ministers of India's new government assemble. Spectacled Ghannafar Ali Khan arrived among the first of the Congress Party members. Congress chief, Pandit Nehru, came next. After Ghendi, he is today's most influential India. Here is Valhabhai Patal.

Rajagopalachari completes the team. They later conferred with Viceroy Viscount Wavell.

Final pictures show Mr. Jinnah, and on his right Liaquat Ali Khan. Moslem League leaders, their battle with Congress continues.