PEOPLE IN CAMERA

In England on a visit - France's veteran Prime Minister 74 year-old Socialist Leon Blum. He came officially to seek coal supplies for French industry. Actual result of his visit was an Anglo-French Alliance. We greet Leon Blum as a true friend. We welcome France as an old and trusted Ally.

From Sydney, Australia, pictures of the American Davis Cup team. On the far court, America's top player Jack Kramer. At this end Ted Schroeder. This two-man American team, defeated the Australians by 5 games to nil.

Here the slow motion camera spotlights Jack Kramer in action.

Watch his perfect ground strokes. These and superior volleying helped Kramer to win all his games in straight sets. It's this technique that puts him at the head of the world's sporting "Who's Who." America's No. 1 makes Wimbledon his object for 1947. We look forward to seeing him there.

In search of personalities this week our reporter met George Badcock, former chef to the Royal Family. We introduce Mr. and Mrs. Badcock at home at Eastbourne.

SPEECH

42 years a cook on the Royal train, George Badcock has a new chef - his wife.
