

2 F02101

47/15

GLASGOW CINEMA BALL

At Glasgow's "Green's Playhouse" a big occasion for Scotland's cinema trade in their annual ball. All of Scotland's who's who in the entertainment world were there. Among those attending is Scottish veteran comedian, Will Fyffe.

The big attraction was the midnight fancy dress parade. Watching the proceedings is Horace Coxall, President of the Cinema Guild. The winners of the fancy dress contest received their prizes from stage star Marjorie Brown. Here our reporter spotlights Glasgow cinema chief W. Kennell. And after midnight, the ball went on till the early hours.