1. LS. Exterior view Congress showing also the Capitel.
2. LS. The interior of the crowded Chamber.
3. CU. & MS. Truman speaking.

"Great Britain finds itself under the necessity of reducing or liquidating its commitments in several parts of the world, including Greece. As in the case of Greece, if Turkey is to have the assistance it needs, the United States must supply it. We are the only country able to provide that help. If we falter in our leadership, we may endanger the peace of the World, and we shall surely endanger the welfare of our own nation. Great responsibilities have been placed upon us by the swift movement of events. I am confident that the Congress will face these responsibilities squarely."

4. LS. Congressmen seated on either side of the gangway shake Truman warmly by the hand as he leaves.
