

TERRORISTS STRIKE AGAIN

In Palestine terrorists strike again. The petrol storage installation of Haifa was set on fire. Damage and loss is estimated at £350,000. The Palestine government has stated that the cost of the outrage must be borne by the Jewish community.

Ten storage tanks were destroyed, the whole town lay under a dense pall of smoke. Two thousand troops and six army fire brigades fought for 24 hours to bring the blaze under control.