

PEOPLE IN CAMERA

In London, meet the latest in home-made cars. Owner -5ft 10, 28 year old Arthur Albert. Five weeks ago Mr. Albert took a look at current car prices and another at his bank balance. Then, instead of going back to his push bike like the rest of us, he built this miniature run-about in his sitting room. Now, car builder Albert and wife can go for a spin in HXO 363.

The Albert car is no freak. Painted green and blue, the two-seater is driven by a motor cycle engine. It does 75 miles to the gallon. 2 foot ten from side to side - it's a little cramped - but it gets around.

After Joe Baksi had made short work of Bruce Woodcock, New York's Athletic Commission Chief Colonel Eddy Egan had this to say about Domeaster's battered Bruce.

SOUND

Paris holds an international exhibition of cats from Britain, France and Belgium. It's hard to tell sometimes who's on show - cats or owners.

The family of four Persians thought they'd have a better chance of taking a prize if they all got together. But Ernest, the Siamese was far above that sort of thing. Hortensia, the white angora took the whole thing very calmly. A prize went to the Persian Felix - though when he last did any walking is nobody's business. The youngest exhibitis collected the charm prize.

Here is the winner and friends.

Pathe News offers its congratulations to our future Queen now that she is 21 years old. Pictures show her in the moments when she is not so much Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor but as a young and happy girl. At 21, a girl who will become a Queen inevitably must be the centre of much speculation on the choice of her future consort. In this connection, the name of Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten, formerly Prince Philip of Greece has been repeatedly mentioned throughout the world. These rumours have been as often denied from Buckingham Palace.

Increasingly heavy public duties fall upon the shoulders of the heir presumptive to the throne. Britain and the Empire know that she