

101322-2
101322-2
47/36

PEOPLE IN CAMERA

At Northolt aerodrome, our cameraman meets Princess Alice of Greece. The Princess is the mother of Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten, formerly Prince Philip of Greece. She has come to stay with her mother, the Dowager Marchioness of Milford Haven. Before leaving Paris, Princess Alice refused to confirm or deny the possibility of a marriage between Philip and Princess Elizabeth.

From Paris - a mystery story. It's a tale of stiff necks and wide open eyes. The camera joins the search of the sky trying to solve the riddle of what everybody's looking at. A couple of acrobats doing their tricks against a background of the Sacre Coeur. Their circus has closed down due to lack of space in post-war Paris, and Jean and Jacqueline chose this as the next best thing.

To the Montmartre crowd it's quite an occasion - a free show doesn't come along every day.

No place to get dizzy up there. It's quite a drop down to the streets and safety nets are not in use. A Paris street is now the grandstand seat for the latest circus stunt.