

THE WAY TO PEACE

At 10 Downing Street, the Prime Minister holds an "at home" for the United Nations Association. Under the presidency of ex-Pathfinder Chief, Air Vice Marshal Bennett, an appeal was launched for £100,000 to support U.N.A. Mr. Attlee said that in these dangerous times, we cannot afford to let the United Nations fail.

SPEECH

Following the Prime Minister, Mr. Anthony Eden also spoke in support of U.N.A.

SPEECH

The Woman's point of view was put by Lady Megan Lloyd George of the Liberal Party who appealed with the previous speaker for world backing for the Association.
