

5-52F101

47/39

ONE MINUTE NEWS

To be married here at the Methodist Church in South Wigston, Leicestershire seems to be a happy omen. At a rededication ceremony, a hundred couples walked down the aisle for the church and said "I will," all over again as a thanks for years of married happiness. The youngest couple had been married 2 years, the oldest 40 years. Their children and grandchildren were there to watch this thanksgiving wedding service.