

5-4FF101

47/43

HOLIDAY YACHTING SEASON OPENS

At Bunchen-on-Crouch, Essex, the holiday yachting season gets off to a flying start. The Royal Corinthian Yacht Club stage 1947's first big race. Clubs all over the country now provide facilities for thousands of new yachting fans, many of whom first tasted salt water in the services.

Watch this for action as they round the first turn.

In yachting, the fans are 100% participants not mere spectators. On Britain's rivers and at the coast, Yacht Clubs are thronged with men and women, in cruisers, small racing boats and dinghies. It's a sport for the hardy.