

2-SPF101
2-SPF101
47/45
3-PPF101

ONE MINUTE NEWS

Nottingham's Lord Mayor, Alderman Shew, turns starter for the Nottingham-Skegness Cycle Race. 40 riders are off on a 77 miles journey. The leaders were Castle Dudley's Stackhouse and Binfield (Wolverhampton).

Through Lincoln - another 40 miles to go.

Wragby - and the riders have 50 miles behind them. Although not as popular as on the Continent, cycle races are being held in many parts of Britain today.

Arrival at Skegness, Scates of London wins. If they fill up that cup, there'll be a good time at the old local tonight.

To the Brazilian town of Bocayava, come scientists from all over the world. They are here to report on the total eclipse of the sun. And now the moon makes contact with the sun. Thousands of people crowded the little Brazilian town, 600 miles north of Rio, to watch a spectacle. One hour, twelve minutes after contact and the moon completely covered the sun. This is total solar eclipse.

6,000 Burma veterans crowd London's Albert Hall. It was hot in Burma, and Britain did its best for them with a near tropical heat wave. To join them at their get-together, comes their commander, General Sir William Slim - Bill to the men from Burma.

To the jungle veterans of Kohima and Imphal, the reunion brought a renewal of old friendships. To entertain them came that refugee from Tentopia, Governor Thomas Handley.