ONE MINUTE NEWS

Engagement day plus 1. Princess Elizabeth and Lieutenant Mountbatten accompany the King and Queen to Lords for the Eton and Harrow Match. Furs were worn on this occasion, which in better summers is more of a garden party than a cricket match. This year it was a field day for the milliners. Hats were top scorers.

For the men - a grey or black topper with morning dress. Despite the cool weather, women - with their flowered or wide brimmed hats - occupied the field.

And of course there also was a little cricket.

Hot Brighton

At New Brighton, England - in blue caps - meet Wales in the first international water polo match since 1939. Washed out during the war, inter-Country matches have made their come-back this year.

Coming up is England's first goal. Scorer - London Penguin's Randall.

Second half saw England leading 2-0, when Cardiff City detective Johnny Parkman scored for Wales. Final result - an England win - four goals to one.

London

2,000 Scouts and Guides parade in London. Taking the salute in the Mall is Princess Elizabeth. Scouts and Guides have come to the parade from the United States and seven European countries. They spent a week in London.

Princess Elizabeth, in the uniform of a Chief Ranger, was accompanied by Sea Ranger Princess Margaret. Both the Princesses are members of the Sea Ranger ship, "Duke of York."
