CAR RACING COMES BACK AT CAMBRIDGE

On Grandsden Lodge Aerodrome, Cambridge, Britain's first post-war road race. This is the 20 lap trophy race - a distance of 44 miles.

Coming round in No. 16, is Sheila Darbyshire - the only woman driver. With Brooklands and Donington Park still out of action, this will be the only motor race to be held in England this year. Here comes the winner, Southampton's Roger Peere in an Alfa Romeo, average speed - 86 miles per hour.
