GRACIE FIELDS IN BODDALE

Gracie Fields comes home to Boddale. 49 years old, she is back after an absence of several years.

Though looking older and a little tired Gracie proved that her voice still carries its old magic.

During the day Gracie was welcomed by the Mayor. At night, the star whose story started in Lancashire as a mill girl, spoke to her townsfolk and Britain from the balcony of the Town Hall. For Gracie's homecoming Pathé News was there to hear her say what it's like to be back.
