BOMBER BRINGS WIFE

Well worth a picture is Joe Louis permanent sparring partner. On her first visit Marva Louis backs mink to beat the weather. No newcomer himself Joe says "Well I am very happy to be back in England again, see a lot of my old friends I met during the war. I'll be here until April 7th then I go back to New York to start training for my fight. How do you think you are going to like England? Oh I am going to love it." As a top Sergeant the "Bomber" was stationed in Surrey during the war while that fact alone would guarantee his welcome his unassuming daring as world champion assures his general popularity.
