

48/18

WORLD AT YOUR ELBOW

New Jersey - A careless driver in New Jersey commits one of the worst sins. Traffic laws forbid motorists to pass a school bus when the children are alighting. It's a good rule and Mr X is rightly copped breaking it. Justice moves swiftly in Lakewood as the punishment in his case fits the crime. Back to school he goes to serve his sentence and how the kids enjoy it as 100 times Mr X tells himself the classroom and the world that he will not pass a school bus again.

Bousov - Czechoslovakia re-opens the caves at Bousov blown in by the Germans 7 years ago. The remarkable feature of the great cavern is it's array of beautiful stalactite and stalacmites, formed by the dripping of water. Some idea of the vast age of the formation can be gained from the fact that in a year the water drops create a piece of stone no larger than a pin head. Fittingly the chamber is populated by bats, whose queer antics are no less fantastic than their surroundings.