

Princess Margaret receives freedom of Glasgow.

1.	M.S. Inspection, coming towards camera.	7
2.	C.U. Inspection, pan to back view.	8
3.	C.U. Walking in second row.	6
4.	M.S. Walking and walk off to platform.	18
5.	L.S. People on roof.	3
6.	L.S. Front view of Provost giving casket.	II
7.	C.U. Officer saluting, sits down.	8
8.	M.S. Troops standing at ease.	3
9.	L.S. Margaret's speech. 'My Lord Provost, my first public engagement as colonel-in-chief of the Highland Light Infantry it falls to me to express to you and the city of Glasgow the thanks of the regiment for the great honour you bestow upon us. I can assure you that it is always a great joy to me to come to Scotland, the land of my birth. To you, My Lord Provost and to all the citizens of this great city I would say 'thankyou' with all my heart. You have given your greatest honour to my regiment. We will see that it is in safe keeping.	57
10.	L.S. One cheer.	II

ORIG. TIN. 21.7