

made into feather beds and cushions, to bring softer nights to those who don't like sleeping on bare boards.

Softest job of all is left to the vanboy - whose life moves on a permanent feather bed.

Opalocka, Florida

200 girls from the All-American feminine baseball league, swing into a joint spring-training spree at Florida's Opa Locka. After a six month lay off (during which they left their bats on the mantelpiece) they're ready to work out winter's kinks. Last year, these lady stars drew a million fans - which is a few thousand more than even Denis Compton can command. If the M.C.C. can follow their action (and their form) Don Bradman and his Australians are in for a hot time.

It looks like a bumper year for the most glamorous of all baseball nines - the four-nines.
