

48/44

MR. SPEAKER FOUNDS NEW COMMONS

To inaugurate the new House of Commons building come leading Ministers and many M.Ps. In an opening reference to the great Parliamentary institution, Mr. Attlee says.....

SOUND

The foundation-stone is laid by the Speaker of the House - Colonel Clifton Brown. The solemnity of the occasion is lightened as he brings his customary dignity to his new role of mason, causing good natured amusement among watching members.