

48/47

BOXER SPECIALISTS TUNE UP

Working off surplus rubber, heavyweight champion, Joe Louis begins serious training for his world title fight. His stay in Britain added inches to his waistline and he returned home looking like the overweight Champion, no credit to Mr. Strachey, Joe brought his own feed. The Brown Bomber gets in some useful roadwork by chasing his sparring partner around the ring.

Despite his narrow margin of victory over Walcott last time, Joe's shuffling methods again make him heavy favourite for the title. But there is at least one person who thinks the odds are all wrong - the other Joe - the challenger for the world's boxing crown - Jersey Joe Walcott:

2-004501
JOE AND JOE

Youngson Baruch

X Heavyweight champion Joe Louis, who looked more like the overweight champion when he returned from his European trip, works off the rubber at his Pompton Lakes, New Jersey training camp. Joe, who promises he'll be in top shape for his million dollar New York fight with Jersey Joe Walcott, also gets in some roadwork by chasing a sparring partner around the ring. Keep away, Joe.

Pul--eze.

X Despite his trips to the canvas and his narrow margin of victory over Walcott last time, Louis is a heavy favorite ---

X But here's someone who thinks the odds are all wet: the cinderella challenger himself - Jersey Joe Walcott ---