J.P. "Have you any idea what caused the change of heart in the electors? 7 ft.

G.S.'s. Oh! it's the post-war desire for change you know. People don't like the old faces, the old smiles and the old speeches - they want a change, and you see the same Government has been in power for many long years. I think my Government survived longer than any other post-war Government. After all people want a change. Why not? I hope they'll be happy. 50 ft.
