U.S. JET FIGHTERS ARRIVE HERE

Arriving at Glasgow docks is the American Aircraft Carrier "Sicily" - bringing to Britain 69 jet fighters and the men who fly and maintain them. Forming No. 36 Fighter Group of the U.S. Air Force, the "Shooting Stars" are commanded by Colonel Spicer and are bound for service in Germany. Although partly dismantled, the 'planes - in the words of their pilots - "Are ready for anything." Officially they are due for normal training under operational conditions. As the pilots, many of whom are wartime flyers, step ashore, Glasgow's comment is - "It's just like old times."

With their Superfortress colleagues in Lincolnshire - the Jet pilots show American strength in the West at a critical time.
