ONE MINUTE NEWS

A tropical hurricane hits Miami - playground of America. Lashing sea and shore, the storm hurls its fury against the city, its gusts raging at seventy-five miles-an-hour.

Thanks to ample advance warnings, casualties are kept to a minimum. The storm's heart by-passes the city and heads out to sea. In Switzerland, pilots of the modern equipped Swiss air force, fly target bombing raids over the world's most difficult and spectacular terrain - the towering peaks of the central Alps. As the specially trained airman peel off to zoom over the peaks and skim the contours of the valleys, cameras record the most breath-taking aviation pictures ever filmed.

Switzerland, patiently suffering from long-standing music hall jokes about their navy, have made their air force rank with the world's best.

At the United Nations Assembly in Paris, Ernest Bevin denounces Soviet policy and says of Mr. Vishinsky:
