

5-882501

48/83

CHURCHILL WARNS THE WORLD

Winston Churchill rejuvenated by a Continental holiday gave a grave message to the world at Llandudno home of this year's Conservative Conference.

At the Pier Pavillion, where Conservative leaders had been thrashing out an election policy - great crowds queue all morning to hear Britain's wartime leader.

Accompanied by Anthony Eden and surrounded by cheering crowds, Mr. Churchill receives a rousing welcome from the assembled delegates. In a stirring speech - reminiscent of his many unheeded pre-war warnings, he tells the world.....