

2-202501
48/87

ROYAL GUESTS FROM DENMARK

To Liverpool street station, the best train from Denmark brings Royal guests. The King and Queen, accompanied by Queen Mary, great King Frederick and Queen Ingrid of Denmark, arriving on their first joint visit to Britain since before the war and their first as King and Queen. They are here to open an exhibition of Danish art.

London's Danish colony turns up in force to welcome their sovereign. A Royal visit from Denmark strengthens Anglo-Danish friendship.