ONE MINUTE NEWS

Join a trip that takes you back to your youth. Admiral Somerville, a 66-year-old grandfather leads a few thousand other youngsters for the opening of the Schoelbey's own Exhibition. With more than a thousand exhibits on view, it's the biggest and best show ever. From model planes to jet engines, it's all there.

Star item at the show - an electrically operated model railway. Along 500 feet of track speed the latest scale models from British Railways. Oh, to be a schoolboy again!

From Poland a new slant on animal devotion. A lion cub has found as foster-mother Alice the Alsatian, who takes on a lion's share of motherhood. Mr. and Mrs. Lion, tired of family life, killed their offspring, leaving the youngster to Alice who seems content with her new charge.

And whether Mrs. Lee likes it or not, he's getting on famously with his step-brothers. But what's going to happen when he grows up?
