SULTAN LEADS MOROCCO FETE

Morocco celebrates the Eve of Mouloud - birth of the Prophet - with the traditional procession of wax-lanterns through the streets of Rabat.

France's General Juin and the Commander of the Moroccan Forces, review troops and cavalry in a march-past to the Sultan's palace.

The Sultan, the object of fanatical devotion by the 9,000,000 Arab population of Morocco, leaves his Palace to receive the homage of his subjects.

Muslims from all parts of the dependency renew an immemorial pilgrimage.
