

105501

24/1/49

AUTO-TELEPHONE

Naples: Small columns have been placed along the streets at places where parking is permitted. They look like the lamp-posts' offspring. However they are not for light, but for sound.

Meterists can drive up to them, plug in, and telephone in comfort.

These new inventions also have the advantage that if you wish to cut yourself off from the person you are speaking to, you cannot be called back! They are only for outgoing calls.

fhl
20/1/'49

Incom exclusivity;

Date of shooting: 19th Jan. 1949