

ICE FISHING

10528501

SPORTS (2)

At the St. Paul Winter Carnival, it's break for the ice as some three thousand fishermen dash for choice spots on frozen White Bear Lake.

There are big prizes for the anglers who can pull the biggest strings from the waters beneath - and you don't need an icebox to keep your catch fresh. There's no room for skating as the big crowd finds they're really biting. Yes, it's nice fishing for ice fishing.