Str-rike! - The American Bowling Congress opens - and since this is Atlantic City, it's natural that pretty girls should tee it off. Then the debris is cleared away - and the actual contestants get busy. More than five thousand teams from nine hundred and eighty cities in the U.S., Canada and Alaska are entered. Thirty thousand contestants will ride the alleys for fifty-seven days in quest of three hundred thousand dollars in prizes. When it comes to bowling tournaments, brother, they
