

8-55750

The Pope and 50.000 children.

In occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his Sacerdotal Consacration, Pope Pius XII blessed 50.000 roman children.

The audience was an unforgettable one. Each child held a flower in his hand as vernal and peace-loving (homage) to the Pope, who works hardly for peace.

When Pius XII appeared, the children cheered him by a huge acclamation.

The Pope said to the children: "Remember that nothing is more perfect than St. Jhon's words! love, love each other.

Pathé News London