

49/41

RITA LEARNS HER DUTIES AS A PRINCESS

France's top thoroughbreds loosen up at Chantilly, in preparation for their summer invasion of Britain's racecourses.

The Newmarket of France - is home to the finest bloodstock in the country - and houses the Ali Khan's fabulous stables. Accompanied by Rita Hayworth (his bride-to-be) the Prince is a frequent visitor. In the eyes of a million film fans, Aly Khan has picked as pretty a winner as anyone can wish for in Miss Hayworth. At Chantilly, the Prince looks for other winners.

Glamorous Rita, after years as a Hollywood Princess, is fast learning to be a Princess in real life. While her fiancé takes an early morning trial gallop, Miss Hayworth relaxes.

With Rita as the loveliest bride of the year, her wedding (scheduled to take place at Cannes) promises to be as spectacular as her courtship.