STARS ON PARADE

Star-time at the Dorchester - and a triple triumph for Michael Wilding, Anna Neagle and Herbert Wilcox. The Attenboroughs, Mr. and Mrs., as well as Stephen Murray, his wife and 400 screen personalities, gather for the 4th Daily Mail National Film Award. To the lovely star of "Spring in Park Lane," Lady Rothermere presents the Silver Star for the Best Actress of the Year, to Michael Wilding the Best Actor Award and another to the film's director, Herbert Wilcox.

Los Angeles, and the American debut of Olympic star Fanny Blankers-Koen. In the 100 metres, the rest of the field seems to be standing still as the Flying Dutchwoman (housewife and mother) streaks home with yards to spare in 12 seconds flat.

The 440-yard relay gets under way with Mrs. Blankers-Koen awaiting her turn to carry the baton for a local team. When Fanny finally takes off, she's 15 yards behind. But watch her burn up the distance!

Fanny Blankers-Koen whips past her rivals to give a fleeting glimpse of the world's fastest woman.
