

~~Robert's great~~ Fanny Blankers-Koen, housewife, and Olympic champion, makes a rearing U.S. debut at the Los Angeles Coliseum. In the hundred meter dash, the rest of the field seems to be standing still as the Flying Dutchwoman turns on the power. Even at this short distance, Fanny has the picture all to herself as she finishes in twelve seconds flat.

The four hundred and forty yard relay gets under way with Mrs. Blankers-Koen awaiting her turn to carry the baton as anchor runner of the Glendale team. Glendale finds the going tough and when Fanny finally takes off she's fifteen yards behind. But watch her come!!!!

Fanny Blankers-Koen whips past her rival as America gets a fleeting glimpse of the world's ~~fastest~~ swiftest woman.
