16. S.V. Bevin speaking.
 'There are some people in the world, who think Social Democracy is weak and can't resist but I believe that you can build a stronger resistance on the hearts and courage of voluntary association through a Democratic body, which will stand longer in the long run than any dictatorship that has ever been invented. 37 Rudkin
17. L.V. G.V. delegates applaud. 4 Gordon
18. M.V. Bevin speaking.
 'There's never been a dictatorship in this world that hasn't talked peace when he's been preparing for war. Do bear that in mind'. 14 Rudkin
19. S.V. Attlee listening. 3 Gordon
20. M.V. Bevin speaking.
 'It's the largest army, the greatest power in the world that is mobilised today, and I want to see that brought to an end, not by war, but by example, remaining firm ourselves. 24 Rudkin
21. S.V. Morrison looking on. 3 Gordon
22. S.V. Bevin speaking.
 'I don't know what will happen. I'm not going to discuss Paris here this morning because you never know what may emerge before we break up. 11 Rudkin
23. S.V. Bevan looking in. 3 Gordon
24. S.V. Bevin speaking.
 'I've been forced to the conclusion that the only thing we can really do is, if we can't agree how we shall live, at least agree to live together. 12 Rudkin
25. G.V. Audience rise to applaud. 4 Gordon
26. M.V. Bevin acknowledging applause. 4 Rudkin
