

0-450501

49/50

SALZBURG RESTORES AN OLD LANDMARK

Salzburg - once the music capital of the world and most famous of Austrian cities - rejoices. Thousands flock to Doms Square to witness the consecration by the Archbishop of Salzburg, of the reconstructed spire on the city's world-renowned Cathedral.

Through the streets moves a procession that symbolizes the faith of a city. In prayer, Salzburg remembers a landmark in her history.