There's an angle to everything, and our cameraman adds several of them to give a new twist to some fancy diving at the Sorrento pool in Miami Beach.

This is Carlos Fernandez, South America's ^{top diver.} ~~shining champion~~

Former Olympic champion Kathryn Rawls adds her angles to the camera's.

Charles Diehl, onetime national champion, dives and LOOK OUT!

Here's something really new. Watch closely!

Yes, these days the camera follows the divers ~~at~~ through the air and right under the water. The cameraman scores a bull's-eye as he adds some fancy twists to the photogenic sport of diving.

~~and~~
