GUN TERRIERS HAVE HOLIDAYS WITH A BANG

Recipe for a quiet holiday - a trip to the Army Ordnance Corps Demolition ground in Merionethshire. Over 70 Women's Royal Army Corps terriers give up their holidays to lend a hand with the disposal of old ammunition. The double destination of this load - first, the military range, then the sky.

An Explosives Disposal Officer outlines the day's programme - the blowing-up of several thousand pounds worth of surplus and unserviceable ammunition! Nearly ten tons at a time. Ladies first ...

Finally Bikini in miniature.
