

49/60CHURCHILL KICKS OFF ELECTION BATTLE

Mr. Churchill opens fire in the battle of the coming election. 45,000 pack the Wolverhampton Wanderers football ground to hear the Tory leader speak. He announces the long-awaited Conservative Campaign policy - then turns to wider issues at stake when the country goes to the polls.

Completely impartial observers again wonder whether it's Churchill the War-leader, or Churchill the Tory spokesman, that gets the crowd....

SPEECH