LILLIPUT "QUINETTO"

Five boys, the youngest one scarcely reaches the 7 years of age, while the oldest is no more than eleven, arranged a well trained "Quintette" : jazz drum, double bass, marracas, harmonica and piano.

The conductor is Maestro Taddei, who is the father of the jazz drum player.

Spanish songs as well as modern jazz rhythms are played with the same earnest care, and the public applaud heartily.
