'Your Worship, the good people of Dartmouth, thankyou very much for this astonishing and wonderful reception. My brother and I have had, as we expected, a very rough time of it. Some days were pretty good and we enjoyed them but other times, well, we should have liked to have been anywhere else. 44
12. C.U. Stanley speaking.
'..... when my brother fell overboard.'
'Where did that happen?'
'That happened about a day off from Ireland. We sighted Ireland the following day and I'd gone to a lot of trouble to cook up a beautiful lunch and handed it out to my brother who was at the helm and he sat up on the deck and suddenly we had a jibe when he wasn't looking, (Ah, getaway - from brother) tried to catch the main sheet as it swung over and went overboard with that and the lunch and a fork. We only had two forks aboard anyway and that left us with one fork.
'And the food with it?'
'And the food went overboard too.' 66
