4. U.V. Bevin speaking.
 'This past week we've been engaged in Washington in the making of history and it may well turn out to be an historic week. We've met many time since the war to discuss and settle many great problems. Now we have been assembled to settle the financial and economic ones. It's been absolutely vital to get this agreed upon in good spirit in order that we may develop a complete system of peacetime operations.'
