

CAPRI SUN GREETES ROYAL HONEYMOONERS

Capri - honeymooners' paradise - turns on its most brilliant weather for the Earl and Countess of Harewood - now nearing the end of their Continental tour.

Lying serenely in the Bay of Naples, luxurious Capri lays on every comfort for its visitors. A funicular railway connects the town with the shore, cutting out unnecessary climbs. The Earl and his Countess - whose romance was founded on a mutual love of music - find that the islanders never fail to show them their talents.

After another short stop in Paris, the Harewoods return to London and the girl from Vienna will begin her duties as Mistress of ancient Harewood House.
