

49/89

STARS TAKE TO CHINCHILLA FOR WINTER.

Chinchilla shares the fashion spotlight with Hollywood stars. Designer Zagri adjusts the chinchilla cuffs on Alexis Smith's stunning outfit. And Alexis shows the style's versatility by removing the cuff and adding it to her neckpiece. Made of detachable links, it can be worn any way you like.

Ruth Roman performs some further fashion magic with a chinchilla-trimmed cape made of two circular panels.

Patricia Neal stars in the third act of this high fashion drama. In the supporting role - yes, it's chinchilla again cast as two completely different characters.

Eleanor Parker adds the fourth star to this style hit, with a dramatic velvet gown, with a knee-length split to increase walking comfort and a face-framing collar to keep her from getting her chin chilla.

Off comes the fur-trimmed top, and, presto-change, it's a fur-trimmed skirt.

Eleanor proves she's a knowing showman by saving the best trick for last. What's no rabbit?