

49/90BATTLE GREEN REPLACES W.R.A.C.'S KHAKE

Like a woman, who has the privilege of changing her mind, the War Office, too, has a mind of its own. A.T.S. now become W.R.A.C.S. and wear bottle green instead of khaki. Complete with ceremonial sash, the fashionable new walking-out dress - (designed by leading dressmakers for the Women's Royal Army Corps and the Queen Alexandra Nurses) comes off the secret list and up for inspection on Horse Guards Parade.

Gene is the familiar khaki, as Mr. Shirwell's army girls lead the Whitehall fashion parade.
