

MONTY GOES WEST TO TALK ABOUT THE EAST

The "Queen Elizabeth" brings to New York Field Marshal Montgomery. Posing with returning Hollywood stars, Monty - here for defence talks - cautiously sidesteps controversial questions and says:-

"I have come over here to the United States at the invitation of the English Speaking Union, to speak at their annual banquet in New York. That is the main purpose of my visit but I am going down to Washington and I shall meet a lot of friends there. I have got a great many old friends here in the Army, in the Navy and the Air Force."
